

VISION

The vision of our company is to be a globally recognizable manufacturer of sack kraft and MG paper, through sustainable development, with a recognizable quality of products and solution, in the field of packaging paper.

MISSION

Our mission is to strive for excellence through sustainable development, create and deliver products (services) that meet the needs and expectations of our customers, and achieve business results, which meet the expectations of our owners, employees, partners and society.

2/10/2022

INTEGRATED MANAGEMENT SYSTEM POLICY

It is the obligation of all employees to build and maintain company's image as a recognizable partner that provides customers with the best solutions for their needs.

The basic principles of our quality integrated management system POLICY are:

- Continuously monitor the requirements and increase customer satisfaction.
- Strive to ensure and maintain permanent presence among the leading companies in European and world market.
- Monitor and implement scientific achievements and changes in standards, in the field of production of paper and packaging.
- Adopt the quality and hygienic conditions of production, in compliance with GMP (Good Manufacturing Practice) as a permanent task of management and production structures at all levels in the company.
- Constantly increase business efficiency, in order to increase employee, management and owner satisfaction.
- Provide employees with constant education and thus bring them into position of active quality creators.
- Support and stimulate creativity of employees, their initiatives and responsibilities for product quality.
- Unconditionally monitor all production norms, so our products comply with the highest standards.
- Continuously monitor and adhere to legal regulations and other demands of interested parties, in respect to safety, health and fire protection.
- We are committed to responsible and careful environment protection and management, in compliance with demands of standard ISO 14001:2015, while complying with all other legal norms and regulations.
- Develop open dialogue with all interested parties on all matters related to environmental aspects, improvement and promotion of environment protection.
- Natron-Hayat d.o.o. is committed to applying risk management program culture, by adopting best practices in identifying, assessment and efficient risk management.
- Improvement in decision making by encouraging identification and discussion on risks.
- Natron-Hayat d.o.o. has the need and desire to implement continuously promotion of culture of health and safety at work, by applying and improving demands of the standards ISO 45001 and its principles.
- Implement objectives set for health and safety at work, and monitor effectiveness realization of objectives for health and safety set that are in line with the overall strategic objectives of Natron-Hayat d.o.o. thus ensuring continuous improvement of an overall system.
- We are committed to responsible and careful management of energy efficiency in compliance with ISO 50001:2018, while respecting all legal norms and regulations
- Organization will strive to rational use of renewable natural resources, economical and environmentally acceptable for this type of production.
- With top professionalism in performing their jobs, all employees in "Natron-Hayat" d.o.o. Maglaj give their share of contribution in realization of the stated goals.

10.02.2022 .

Generalni direktor.

Ömer Eğinmez